Mary O'Halloran writes....

Annual Mass for the Bereaved

Most of November we concentrate on remembering our dead. The Holy Souls Novena, the visits to the graveyards are good but they make it impossible for people to avoid being revisited by the pain caused by the death of a loved one. Here in Ballinhassig Parish we have had sad, sudden and untimely deaths this year and in the past few years. Consequently we have many parishioners for whom November is a very sad and lonely month. The thought of facing Christmas without the departed loved one always brings enormous sadness in need of some ray of hope to dispel the darkness of grief. Conscious of this, the Parish Assembly have organised the Annual Mass for the Bereaved.

All those who have suffered a bereavement in the past twelve months, their family members, neighbours and friends are invited to attend this Special Mass on Tuesday November 20th at 7.30pm in Ballygarvan Church. It is hoped this Special Mass will bring a message of hope, comfort and consolation to all who live with the pain of loss, especially the death of a loved one, separation, divorce, loss of employment or financial security, health and any other loss which we may endure as individuals. As part of the ceremony everybody will be invited to bring a lighted candle, available at the door, to the altar on entering the church. These individual candles will then symbolise a community of hope with all candles then lighting as one. Everybody welcome, as we are conscious that we may not be aware of all parishioners who suffered bereavements of family members who resided outside the parish. The night, however, is not only for those bereaved in the past twelve months, it is a night for remembering and praying for all who are grieving. There is a great tradition of support and understanding in our parish at times of bereavement. Mass on Tuesday night will be another opportunity to offer sympathy, and support through being present and praying with our bereaved families, neighbours and friends. All welcome, invite your family and friends from outside the parish to join you on the night.
