John Joe O'Sullivan, Gortnaglough.

*We give our loved ones back to God.
Those who die in grace go no further from us than God, and God is very near.*

We Remember

We remember the following who died recently and pray for his family, neighbours and friends.
Timothy Fitzpatrick, Riverstick.

Pray for one Another

We remember and pray for all our parishioners both at home and abroad who have been recently bereaved, those who had or are awaiting surgery, treatment, or are ill in any way, those facing their final days in this world. For all who are addicted, lonely, feel forgotten or helpless, those dealing with difficulties in their daily lives, and for the intentions of those who cannot pray themselves at this time.
You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Brighter Tomorrow

Your problems! My problems! Our Problems! God is Love

Whatever your problem, whatever your cross, Whatever your burden, whatever your loss,
You've got to believe me you are not alone,
For all of the troubles and trials you have known
Are faced at this minute by others like you Who also cry out, "Oh, God, what shall I do?"

I read many letters from far countries and places,
I see eyes of sadness in hundreds of faces,
And I, too, feel the "thorns and the bruises of life"
And "the great stabbing pain of sorrow's sharp knife,"
But I know in my heart this will, too, pass away
And so as you read this I implore you today Find comfort in knowing this is God's way of saying "Come Unto Me" and never cease praying.

For whatever your problem, or whatever your sorrow
God holds "The Key" to a Brighter Tomorrow.
